

STUDENTS FEEDBACK ON CURRICULUM AND TEACHERS

ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-24

Total students participated in the feedback survey was 1204 of which 1009 UG students and 195 PG students. The survey included 6 questions on curriculum and 9 questions to evaluate the performance of teachers. The overall percentage of responses are given follows.

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

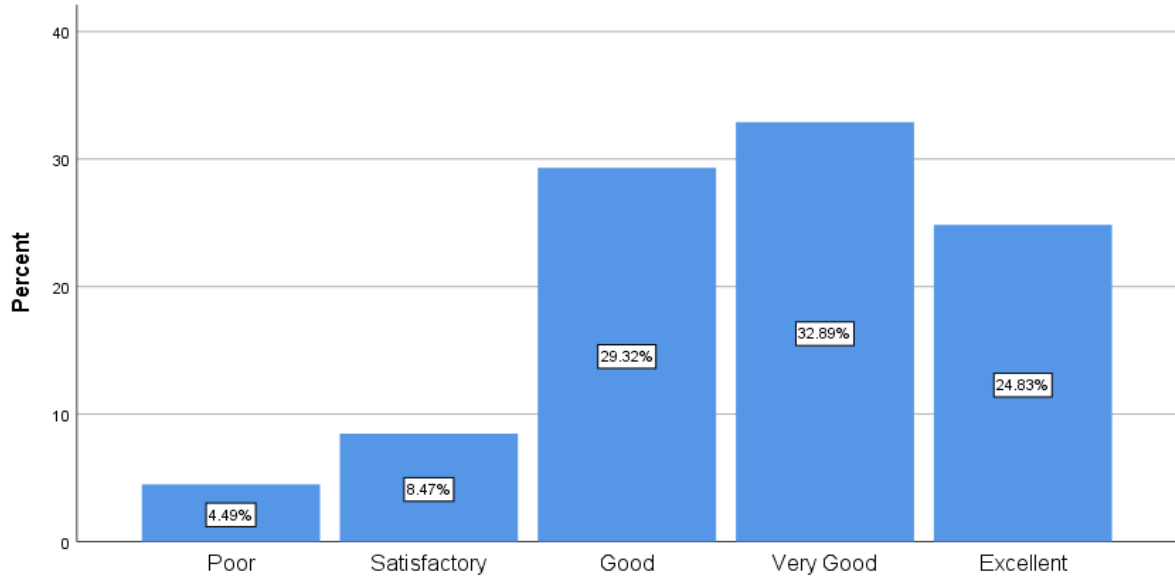

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.

Response of UG students about the curriculum are given below

Teachers prepare well for classes.

Teachers prepare well for classes.

Teachers use student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies for enhancing learning experiences

Teachers use student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies for enhancing learning experiences

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

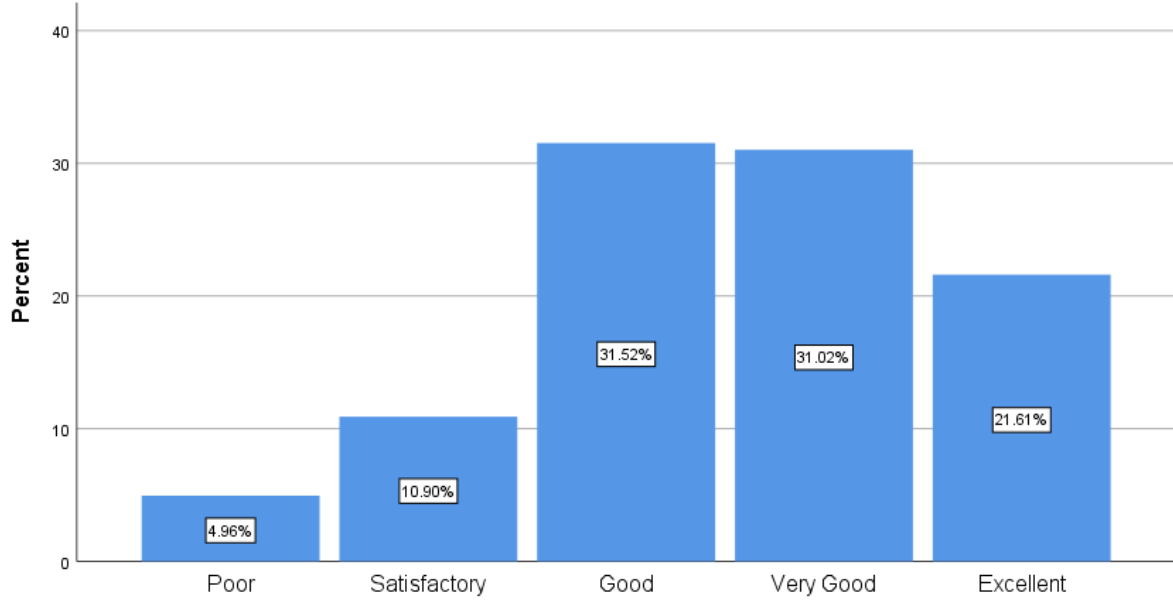

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

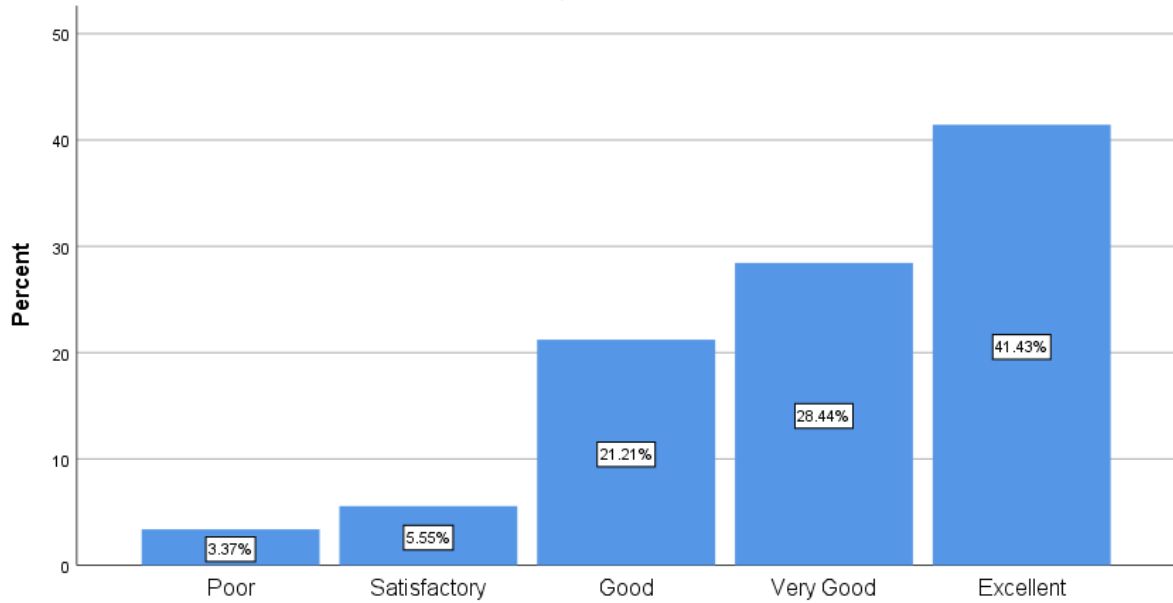

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

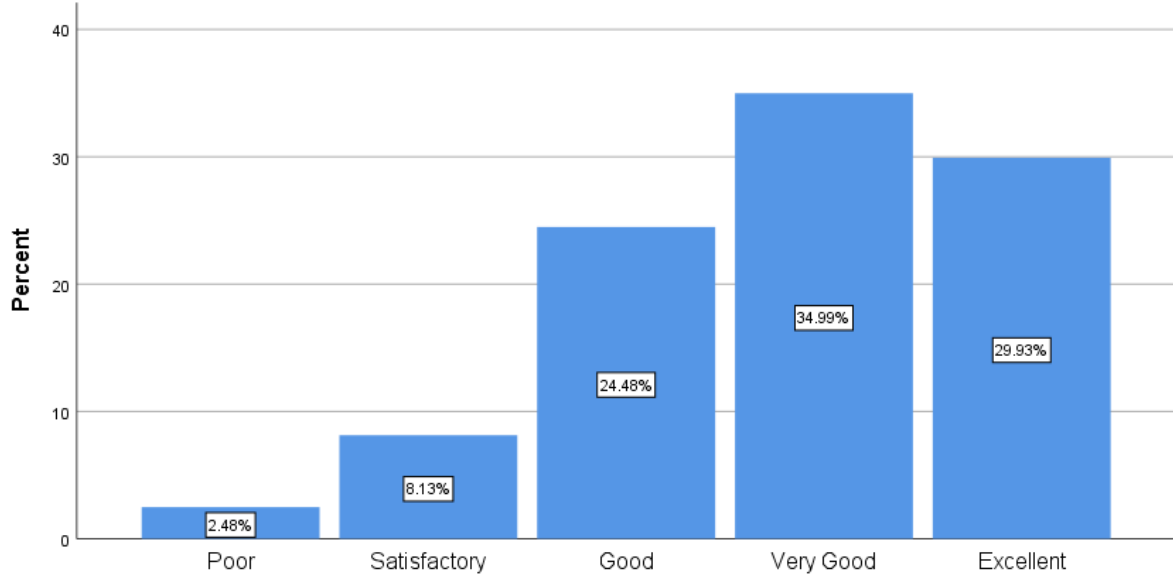

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

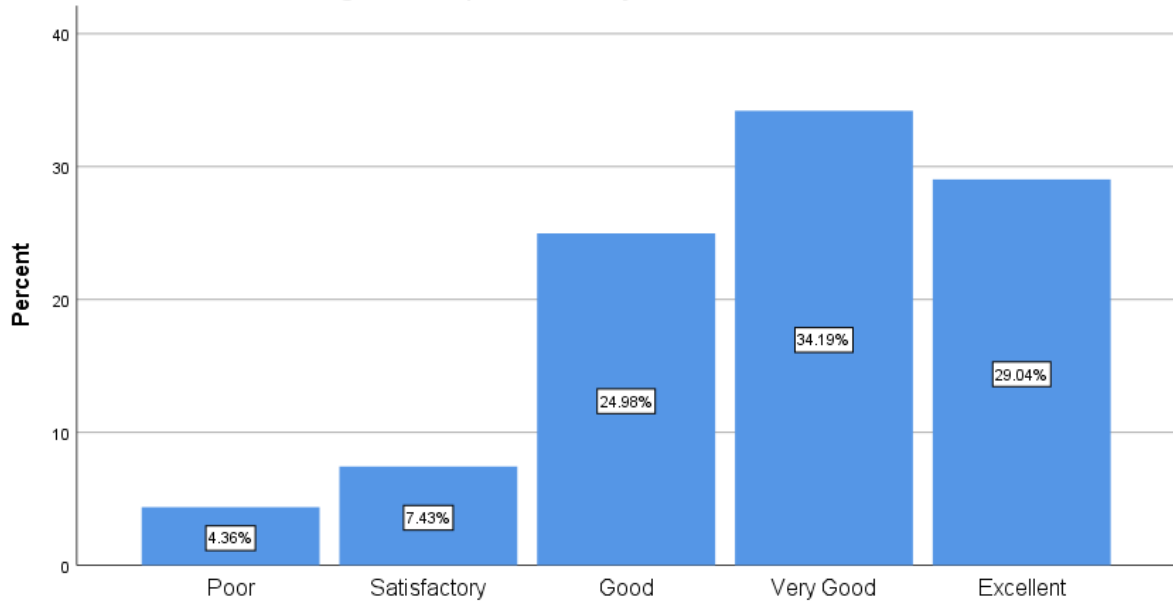

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

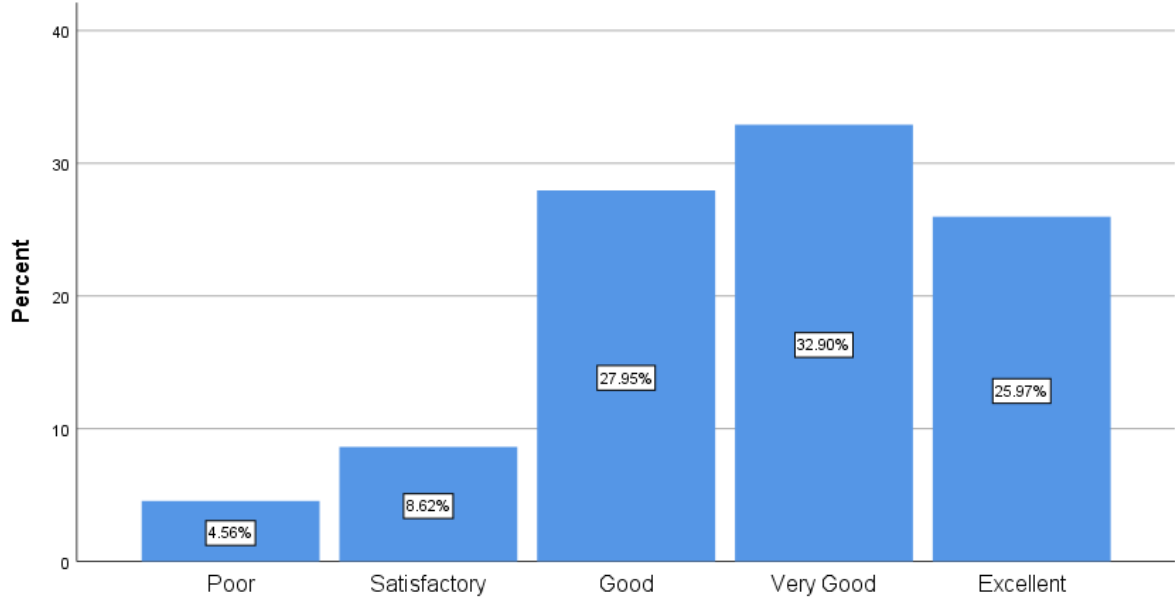

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.

Response of PG students about the curriculum are given below

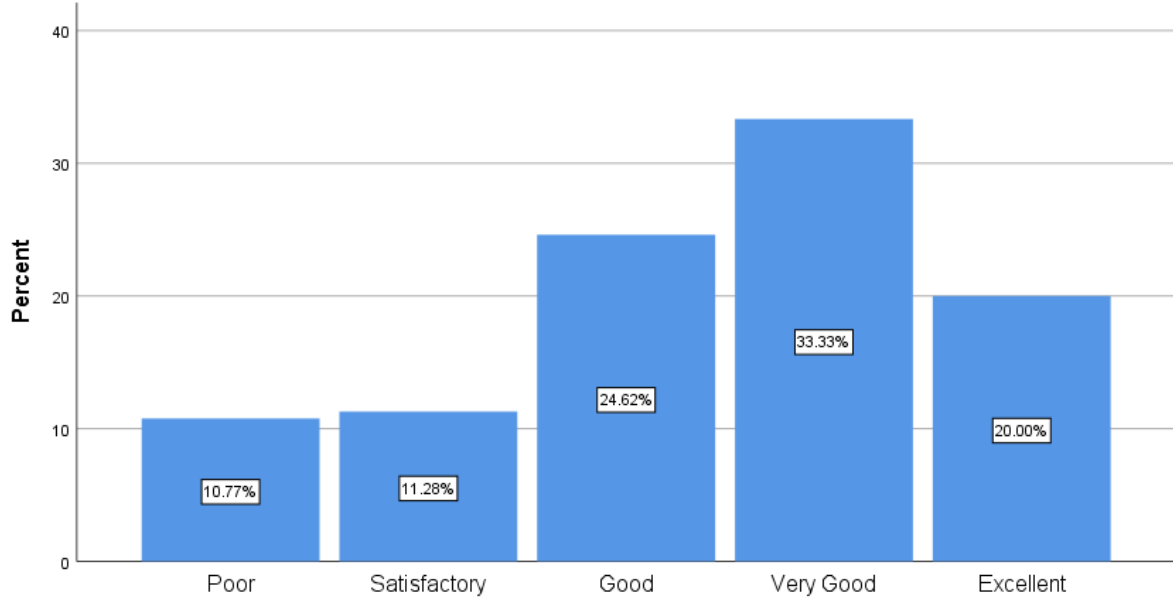

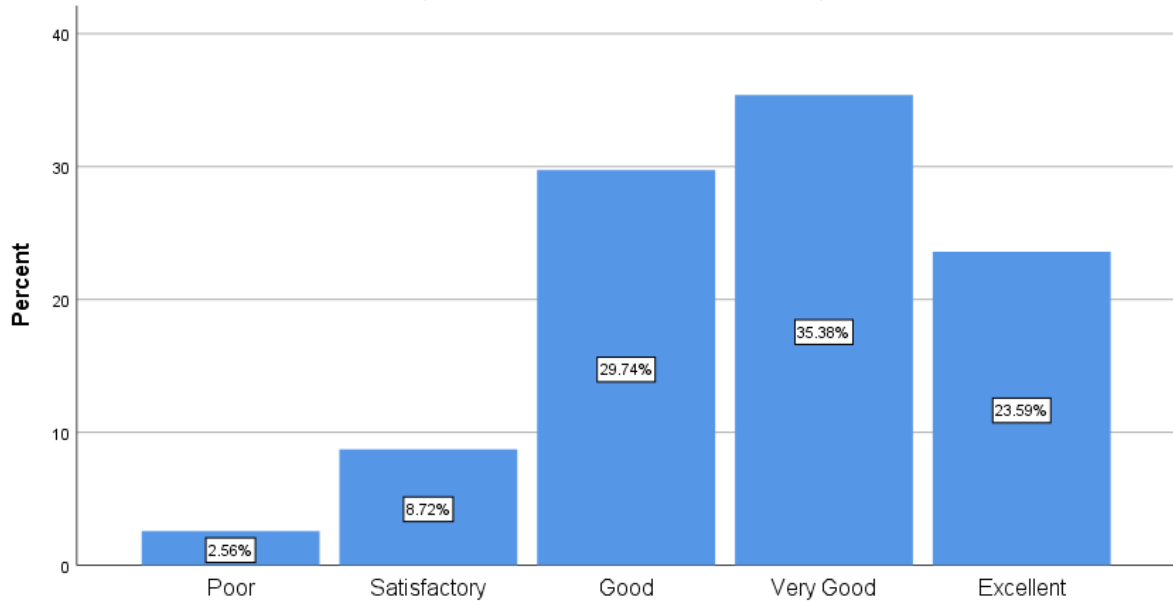

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

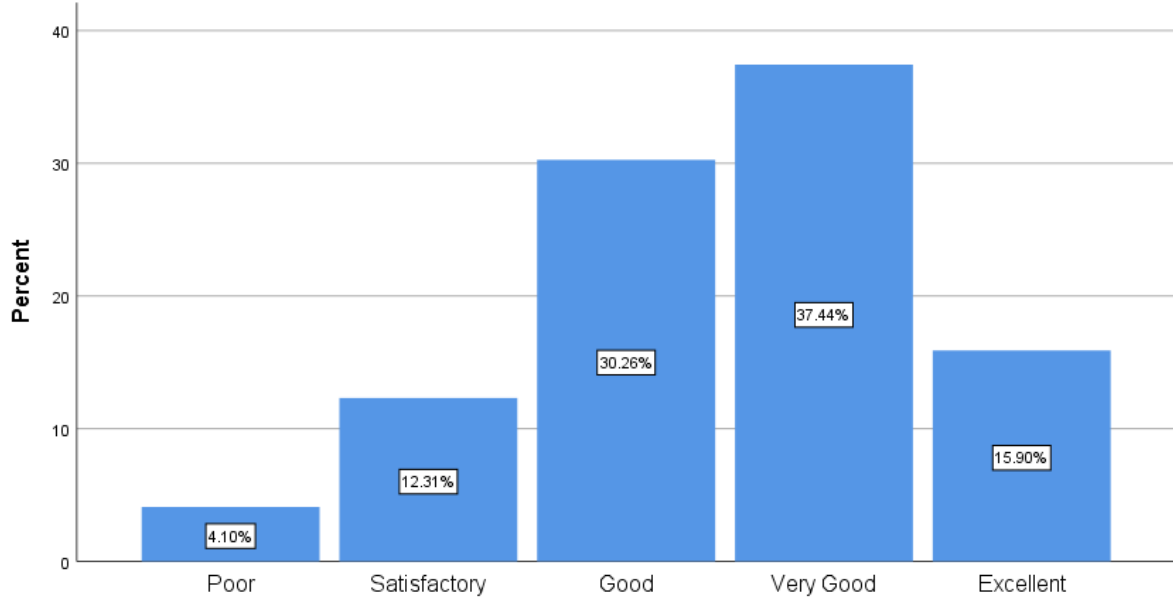

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

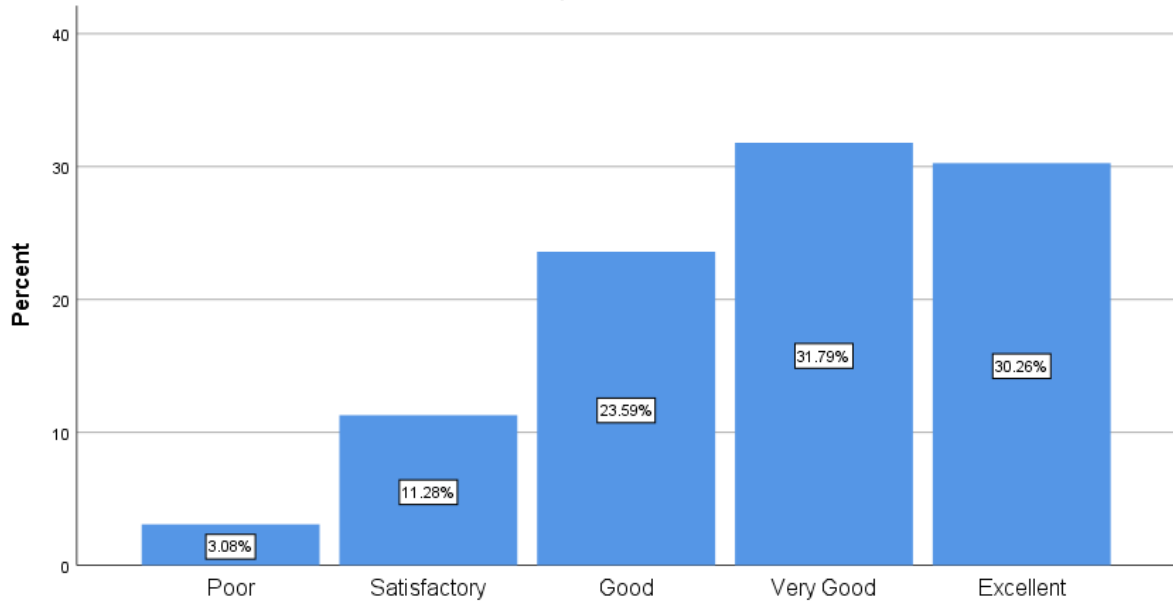

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

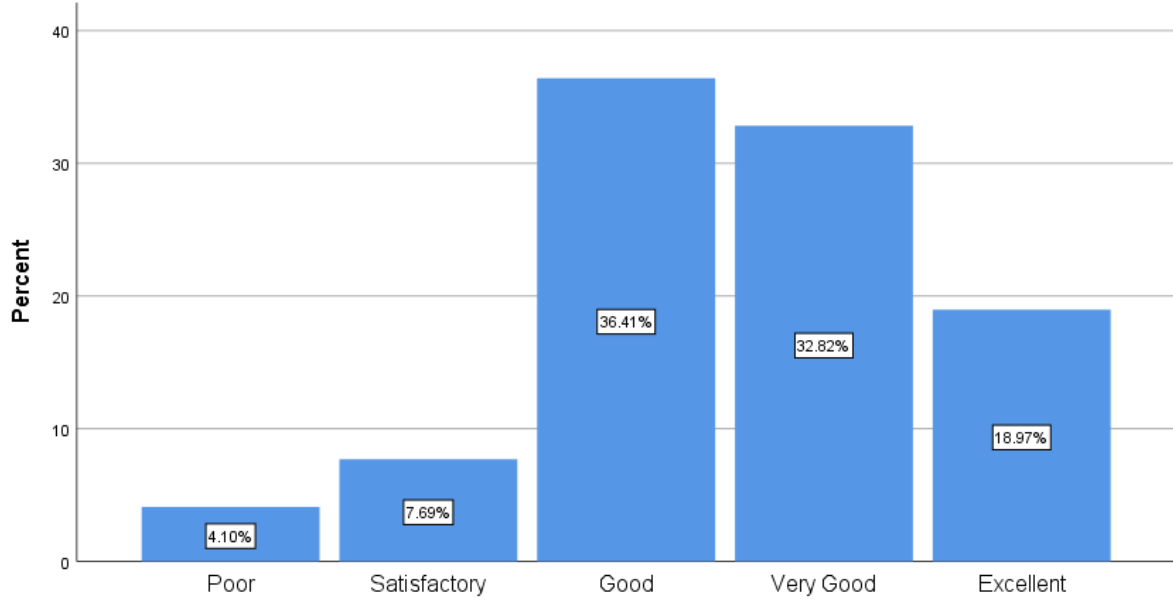

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

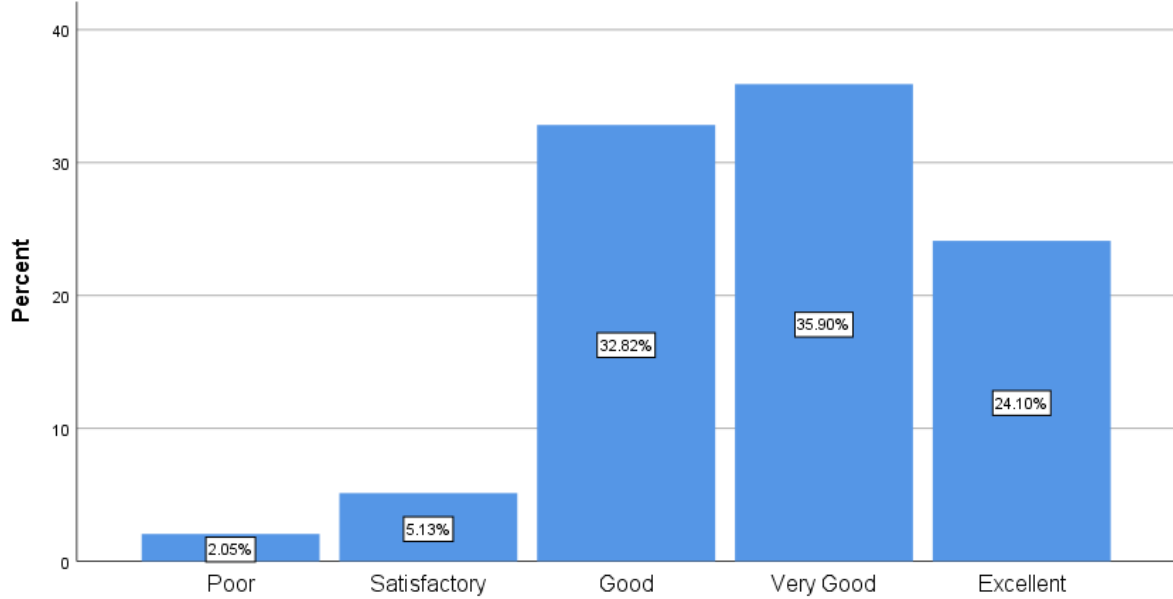

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.

How will you rate the course syllabus?

How will you rate the course syllabus?

Syllabus helped you in competing for national level competitive examinations.

Syllabus helped you in competing for national level competitive examinations.

Curriculum includes both basic theory and applications.

Curriculum includes both basic theory and applications.

Teachers use student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies for enhancing learning experiences

Teachers use student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies for enhancing learning experiences

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

Teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

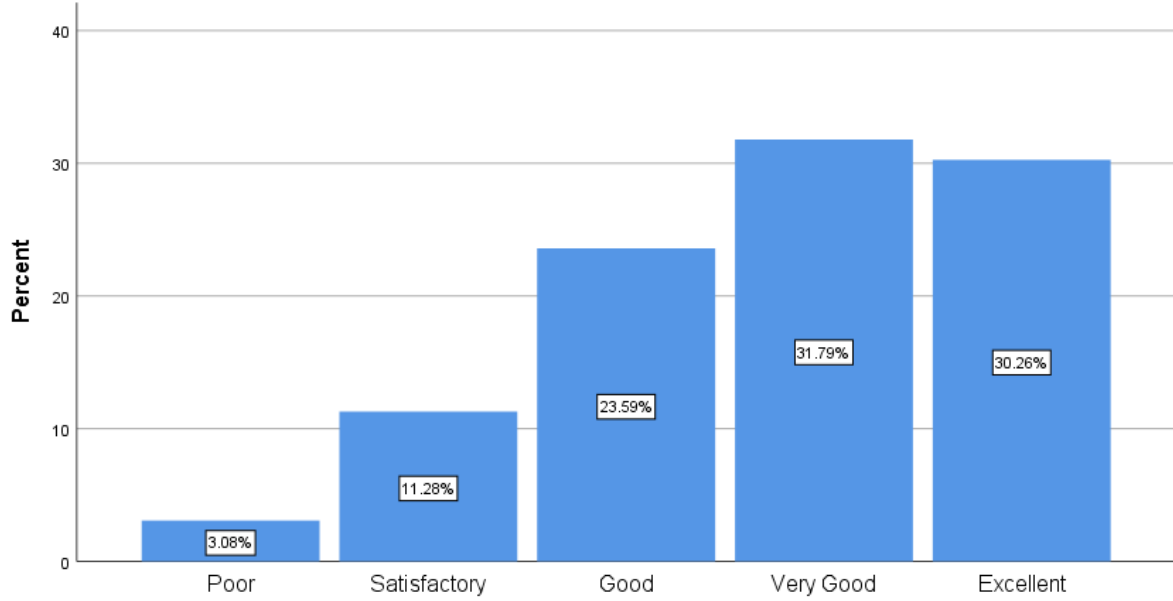

Teachers elicit responses from students to ensure comprehension.

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

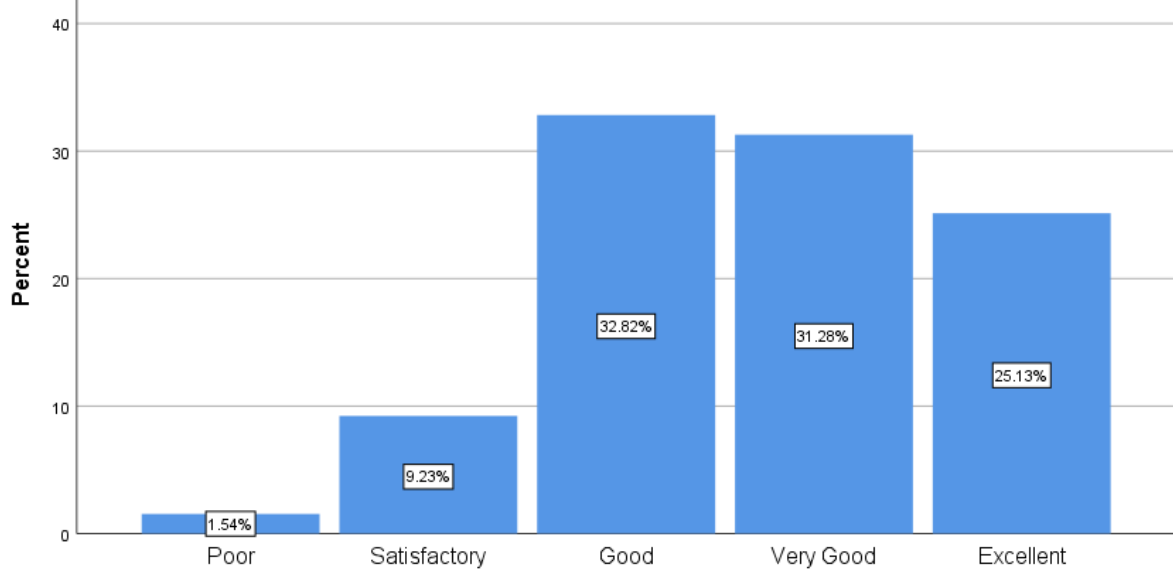

Teachers incorporate minor evaluation strategies in every day's class.

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

The internal evaluation process is fair and scientific.

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

The courses taught at the college cater to the rising needs of the society and help in moulding good citizens.

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

The college has adequate laboratory and infrastructure facilities.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.

A student's progress is discussed with the concerned student.